

Vonage Wins Partner of the Year Award from Salesforce

February 9, 2021

LONDON--(BUSINESS WIRE)--Vonage (Nasdaq: VG), a global leader in cloud communications helping businesses accelerate their digital transformation, announced today that Salesforce.org has named Vonage as winner of its 2020 Cross-Industry Independent Software Vendor (ISV) Partner of the Year EMEA Award.

Presented at the Salesforce.org Virtual Partner Summit, the award recognises firms who have demonstrated excellence in serving Salesforce not-for-profit customers, innovating and giving back.

Vonage's contact centre solution integrates all communications channels without expensive, disruptive hardware changes and plugs straight into an organisation's Salesforce platform. This enables Vonage customers using Salesforce, like not-for-profit businesses Homeless Link and National Citizen Service (NCS), to perform better, connect easier and enhance experiences to help them serve their customers better.

"We are delighted to have won this prestigious award from Salesforce.org," said Kristan Fiandach, Vice President, Alliances at Vonage. "This is testament to our integration with Salesforce and commitment to providing flexible and innovative tools to help non-profit organisations build next generation communications solutions to create richer relationships with their stakeholders."

Salesforce, Salesforce.org and others are trademarks of Salesforce.com, Inc.
